The Premises:

End of back street bus stops on other side of road so people watching, taxi firm next door all drivers look at you knowing where your going and parking is poor as there are signs at every business saying strictly no parking so took the risk on sunday morning and parked the bike in hopes! (looks like a place nobody has seen at top of the range Harly). Took my gear in with me instead of locking in the top box.

The Lady:

Brandi was a black girl not un attractive with reasonable figure with probably C breasts with big nipples, shaved if you got the right day of the week (probably monday)

The Story:

Rang the day before to ask who was working and told to ring on the day, when I rang on the morning was told by foreign maid in difficult to understand three girls working two size 8 and one size 8/10, none of whom on the website. When I eventually found the doorbell and was let in its up dingy stairs which were poorly light at top so tripped up the last step. The three girls introduced themselves Brandi first size 8/10 then the other two one definitely size 12 and the other hard to judge probably a 10 but less than 5ft tall, would have walked then if Brandi had not been there.

Paid the money no choice as shown on website and it was a case of get undressed yourself with no help or assistance from Brandi, on to bed and start with massage (middling) then turn over and start to work on cock which was rough and hard had to tell her to slow down and try to put some feeling into it, meanwhile was allowed to play with boobs and between leg (bit like sand paper). As hand job was not getting along very fast asked for oral and Brandi did OWO which was OK but nothing fantastic, eventually got hard and Brandi put on the mac but not very easily at my request she got cowgirl but it was a case of just bob up and down as fast and hard as possible while keeping mouth tightly closed and looking at the side wall. Decided better get it over with and moved to doggie to finish.

After cleaning me up she just put on underwear and skimmed through a magazine while I started to get dressed then halfway through said goodbye see you next time? and walked out.

In short not a good punt don't believe any of the girls on the website work there as they all look to good for this place and was glad to get away (back to Milton Keynes next time)
