The Premises:

a nice well kept apartment on the outskirts of the city centre. Good facilities etc.

The Lady:

Very pretty blonde girl, 5' 2" out of heels, C cup boobs and a dress size 10 now.

The Story:

I was greeted by Olivia in a very nice a-line pink dress. She was well presented and looked very nice. We soon moved through to the bedroom to get jiggy!

The session started off with some good full on snogging that soon lead to exploration of each others' bodies and removal of clothes. Already I could tell and feel that Olivia was more experienced than the last time I saw her and the session was already flowing very naturally.

She moved down my body to start some OWO work on my cock. Again in my previous report I felt her technique was limited due to lack of experience, I can definitely confirm that she has learnt quick! Her oral technique was really very good with different speeds, tonguing of the head and some good ball licking. I was impressed!

I suggested that she swing a leg round so we could 69. Her pussy was sweet and wet and I explored with my tongue and some probing fingers. I couldn't give it my best though as her cock sucking technique was now that good that she had me on the edge a few times and I had to stop pussy licking just to get control of the nice feelings emanating from my knob. 69'ing lasted for about 10 mins or so and then my hard cock was ready for some lovin'!

Sex started in missionary that was very intimate with lots of kissing and caressing as I pounded away. We swapped positions so that she was on top in cowgirl when again she showed good technique at cock riding. Towards the end I pulled her forward and did some work underneath after having been last for the most part of the cowgirl experience.

We then moved into doggy where we worked up a nice rhythm. Another sign of her improved technique was her thrusting back, to increase the pleasure and penetration but not so much as to knock the rhythm of kilter. And so the first climax of the session arrived with me shooting into the rubber in doggy.

We took a break for 5 mins and chatted about the sex scene while my little man got ready for round two.

Session two was much the same. We started with kissing and cuddling, quickly moving onto some good owo cock sucking to get everything going again before moving onto the sex. Sex itself was in missionary and Doggy only this time which was good. Time was moving on and the hour was fast approaching and so I decided I'd like to finish with CIM.

On my knees Olivia worked hard and brought me near to climax. We swapped positions so she was laid down in front of me and I was up on my knees. I finished by shooting my load into her willing mouth with a little help of some hand relief. She neatly spat my cum out and I resisted temptation to taste it.

We tidied up, got dressed and left the room. We had run about 10 minutes over time so there hadn't been any rush either. All in all a good session with Olivia whose sexual skills have definitely improved over the 5 months or so since I last saw her.
