The Story:

on entry was offered a drink and introduced to the girls. I had already seen Vanessa on the website and seen that she does what they call a Nuru Massage (wet body to body). I opted for the hopur service its pricey but was well worth it. Once the room was ready we shared a nice warm bath where we shared lots of kisses and i was cleaned all over. Then we made our way to a blow up mattress and Vanessa poured a lubricant onto me and went to work rubbing her body along my back and legs then i was told to roll onto my back, this continued for a good half hour, with me able to explore her body as she massaged me with it. Then she showered me off and we made our way to the bed. More kisses and caressing followed by oral which for a little extra i was able to return. We finished with us in the doggy position. After more kisses and caressing was certainly not rushed to get dressed and leave. All in all a wonderful experience.
