The Premises:

nice apartment building close to university and rail station. lots of police around but there were riots there last week so thats not to be unexpected.

The Lady:

petite and lithe brunette, very good skin, fantastic bottom. stunningly pretty. breasts may be a little small for some tastes but are exactly as i like them.

The Story:

very good, the lady enjoys her work. I've had other hour long appointments where an extended massage and faffing about was used to eat up time but not here. i was thoroughly worn out and ready for a nap after 45 minutes.

The text only booking system coupled with very pretty girls on the website did shout scam to me at first, but it all worked very efficiently and the girl was if anything better then the photos led me to believe.
