The Premises:

The flat is not in the best part of Borehamwood - but it is alright with easy parking and clear directions given.

The Lady:

She has only been doing this for a few months and is rather charming and is a girl who really does enjoy sex. I was rather taken with her from the start and this developed into one of those very rare meetings that was more than just sex, well for me at least. She is in her mid- twenties with a lovely body, small breasts but very much to my taste.

The Story:

We started with a light conversation and I grew very impressed with this intelligent girl and I developed somewhat of crush. This made the rest of the session so much more enjoyable, and even before the end I just knew I would have to see her again. She was very responsive and was clearly enjoying the attention I was giving to various parts of her body which led her to an an orgasm. The usual areas were covered but no kissing which I think is fair enough. Gentleman, I would thoroughly recommend this lady but please treat her with the respect she deserves. A great punt one of the best.
