The Premises:

My Home

The Lady:

Petite, long dark hair, slim, very attractive, well dressed - quality boutique style, and moves with athletic ease. Superbly presented, she is fit in every sense!

The Story:

Livi's car pulled into the drive a few minutes early - one of a very few people to find my house first time simply from written directions. I was already impressed!

Her pictures on the Glamour Girls Escorts site are accurate in all essential details but certainly not flattering. She is a lovely looking girl with matching figure, including a superb bust, and the effect of the pictures is to convey to any would-be punter tantalising evidence of superb natural gifts, but to provide her with a fair degree of anonymity in everyday life.

Livi's wonderfully friendly and easy manner enabled the requisite formalities to be dealt with as we made our way from the hallway to the bedroom. With my hopes regarding services happily agreed we started immediately with cuddles and kisses involving no little passion. I quickly discovered Livi is comfortable with what she does and very responsive to even gentle stimulation which added enormously to my own enjoyment. A lengthy spell of RO, was very well received and eventually brought about a natural break! That was followed by more kisses and cuddles which preceded superbly sensitive OWO followed by another session of RO. The briefest of cowgirl was abandoned when, recognising my advanced state, I opted to finish with more OWO which caused a release the likes of which I've not experienced for a long time.

The final few minutes of a thoroughly enjoyable meeting were spent laid on the bed, arms around one another and with one of her legs draped across my stomach as we exchanged views concerning the pros and cons of escorting and punting.

Lovely Livi is an opportunity not to be missed.
