The Lady:

I suppose Helen's pictures are accurate but they don't convey, in my humble opinion, just how beautiful she is in the flesh. Slim, very attractive and downright sexy in her secretary outfit. Breathtaking in her latex mistress garb.

The Story:

A two fold session with an interview scenario in which I try to ascertain myself over the new secretary. She then switched to deliver, and did she deliver a bdsm light session including tie and tease, flogging, watersports, accompanied shower and anal play with strap-on fun. Once the admin was taken care of Helen got changed into her secretary outfit and I conducted the interview, asked her to display and play with herself as I stroked, nuzzled and explored her wonderful body. This included reverse oral which seemed to go down a storm. This was the preliminary stage of the session and certainly got the temperature and heart rates rising. During the mutual worship I was asked to sit in the chair so that she could perform a striptease/lapdance and before I knew it I was restrained by wrist and ankle cuffs and had a blindfold put on before the teasing took a more dominant twist.

Left there for no longer than a few moments she got changed into the most wonderful outfit of clinging black latex dress, latex stockings, long latex gloves and high heels. When I had the blindfold lifted she was a sight to behold. Simply stunning. She then continued the tease somewhat firmer before releasing me for a flogging and more reverse oral. Holding me tight I was almost enveloped in latex which for me was wonderful. Mistress then announced that she needed to relieve herself and that I was to receive her copious amount of golden nectar which was clear and plentiful. We spent sometime cleaning up in the shower with her still fully dressed which was unbelievable sexy, wet and slippery before retiring to the main room again for what can only be described as GFE anal play which culminated in strap-on fun. She didn't allow me to see the size of the toy beforehand which is probably a good thing but with patience and experience she ended up giving me a very good seeing to.

In summary Helen was a delight throughout, imaginative and understanding with a real passion for delivering a top session. I cannot wait to see her again to take the roleplay and the adventure to another level
