The Lady:

Classically feminine sensual beauty, a living goddess!

The Story:

Wow!!! Well reality seldom transcends fantasy but in the case of Pearl of the west fantasy truly has been surpassed.

Her delightful character made me feel privileged to be within her company yet at absolute ease throughout our time together as if we had known one another for many years.

Pearl's profile pictures although alluring simply cannot impart her true classic all woman beauty.

The delectable taste of her body demeaned the vintage champagne we shared.

I found Pearls intellectual conversation most stimulating.

The kind of lady that would make any man feel proud and fulfilled to have upon his arm or even to wake up to every morning for the rest of his life regardless of and fully embracing her desire for carnal emancipation and to let off steam asking only for some of her free time. Trust me coming from a 41 year old; devote bachelor and self-confessed philanderer this is no small statement?.
