The Premises:

Upscale apartment on the ground floor of a Victorian building on a busy street equidistant between South Kensington tube station and Gloucester Road tube. The bedroom was five star; the maid offered orange juice (which I took) or water; the bathroom was ensuite with plenty of fresh blue towels.

The Lady:

As in the pictures. She looks younger than her age (which she says is 28). Very thin waist, lovely large soft natural breasts, and very shapely bum (see below).

The Story:

A very enjoyable 45 minutes. I told Sarah that I would put myself in her hands, and she gave me a wry smile and said something along the lines of 'That's what I like'. She sure did!

With a no-rush 45 minutes, we kissed and slowly undressed each other (which was easier for me to do to her, as there wasn't much to take off her). I couldn't resist sucking her nipples but she clearly wanted to get me hard with her mouth. Who was I to refuse?

We must have spent 10 minutes doing this with both of us going from knees to standing, but then moved to the bed. Her oral technique was so exquisite that I told her I felt like I just wanted her to suck me for the whole time. Again she gave me that wry and pretty smile and went to work.

I thought I had only one cum in me for the 45 minutes, and did tell her to stop at one point, when I then just spent some time studying her and licking her. But having seen her bum when I undressed her, I just had to have her from behind, which I did -- for about another 10 minutes, while all the time trying to reach around to touch those wonderful breasts.

I couldn't get my mind off her oral technique, and pulled out of her and said that I thought I'd want her to finish me off with oral. Her reply: 'That's my favourite'. So the next 10 minutes were heavenly OWO with a CIM finish. Which brought a big smile to her mouth, too.

We still had about 10 minutes left, and she and I lay together talking, while I was running my hands all over her body and trying to recover. She's a great conversationalist, too, although I suspect most of the readers of this field report will have other things in mind other than talking -- but at least know she not only has a great body but an engaging mind to go with it.
