The Story:

I dont normally submit field reports but in his case i felt i had to. What can i say...awful attitude, no charisma, distant and seemed unhappy and moody. Claims to offer GFE and FK but FK was not even offered, service not remotly close to what is advertised on the website. Kept on asking me what i wanted next and it shouldnt be like that when you are spending ?150, it should feel natural and spontaneous. Total waste of money i might have just thrown it down the drain. She couldnt even turn me on as there was no effort to please. I was contemplating whether to go for this punt as my usual lady was away and should have gone with my gut instinct and stayed away. Total rip off, stay away and dont waste your money. How she can charge ?150 and get away with it REALLY annoys me. Would i visit her again or recommend her...never in a million years.

Service Provider's Rebuttal

The lady writes:

I would like to reply to FR 110254.

The FR is inaccurate and misleading. It was a 2:25am booking on a Saturday night. The client was 45 min late and did not apologise on arrival. He was suggested to take a shower but declined to do so... I do want to underline that my services do include FK, DFK and OWO, I am a genuine girl and me being around for quite a while and doing well in my business is the proof that I am not a cheater. I like my clients to be happy and always return, I am not a liar but I also care very much for my health and respect the health of all my clients. There for I take the liberty to politely refuse certain services. Although he was explained that once he would freshen up the would get all the services promised, the gentleman in question refused to do so.

As I was concerned with his hygiene it was correct to decline some services.

His other comments are completely unfair as well. I deal usually with gentlemen that understand that I am a human being not a robot, this wasn't the case thou. Any engagement of this kind requires the participation of 2 people and without communication you just can't properly interact, particularly if you have to do so with a passive statuette. Despite my best efforts there was simply no input. The old saying 'you get what you put in' could not be more true.

The fact that this is his first review says it all. I am curious if any other girl could make him happy in these conditions.

Thank you punternet for allowing me to reply to his review, hopefully this will help other clients see the truth in this situation.
