The Story:

Another disappointing outcall chosen from the purple site. Arrived nearly 2 hrs later than the requested time. This usually happens, though sometimes you wait for hours and then you get a bullshit message saying she won't be coming - wished this time that was the case.

Got oral without but was a bit mechanical, as if she wanted me to come asap. As for the sex, might as well be shagging a rubber doll. There was no interest from her part whatsoever, no talk, the only noise that came out of her mouth was her constant chewing of chewing gum. Because of all this, I had real difficulty in getting it up, took about 10 mins before I finally got going. And when I finished, she took no time in getting out.

Her profile name is 'Ultimate Sandra'. Need to insert 'Crap' in the middle of this.
