The Premises:

A dingy flat on the Ombersley Road in Worcester - blocked shower nearly overflowed when I used it.

The Lady:

I'd say late 30s at a guess, about 5.6" fair hair, large, firm boobs with nice suckable nipples but her waist is wider than her hips which for me is not the shape a woman should be. She advertises as 'Worcester Model' in the local free paper but God knows what she could be modelling. I saw her a while ago but she is still advertising.

The Story:

I'd been let down by my regular girl so made the mistake of going to someone I'd not seen before or heard any reports on. Having taken the trouble to shower for her in her not very nice shower I found that she had not repaid the compliment and that her pussy stank so I could not go anywhere near it. She sucked me off (covered despite shower) and I tried shagging her but there was no way it was going to work.

However things did then improve when we resorted to her oiling her tits and hand and giving me a hand job. As I lay back on the bed and gave her oily tits and nipples a good massage, which she really seemed to enjoy, as did I, she demonstrated a very good hand technique and brought me off successfully over her tits which few other women have ever achieved. Having starved myself of sex for a week she commented on how much cum I'd produced.

Although I can't recommend Lisa I would go back to her for an oily hand / tit job but at least I'd know what to expect and would only pay for 30 mins. There's not much else available in Worcester in my experience.
