The Lady:

Stunning, slender Indian looking Lady, well dressed 5'3" - 5'6" Dark long hair with highlights, glasses, well spoken with an accent I just could not place.

The Story:

She had struggled to find my house so she phoned and I met her outside, there is nowhere close to park other than my drive way so I did not see her vehicle. I had e mailed her some directions but it appeared that she had not used them. I invited her in and we exchanged a few words about my house. As I have read reports that it can offend the lady if they have to ask I offered and she accepted the fee. She appeared a little flustered I assumed from struggling to find my house then said she had left her bag in the car, I thought this was a bit odd but plausible in the circumstances as I did not want an unpleasant situation to develop I unlocked the door and let her out. I went to get her a drink but really I knew she had run off with my money and sure enough she failed to return. Other than the usual anxiety on these occasions nothing that could be unsettling occurred. So I did not get to play the Indian way that night.
