The Premises:

Her flat is in the basement of a building facing a busy street. It was rather dark, but clean.

The Lady:

Much older and run-down than her photos suggest, a lot less attractive. Facial features have a superficial resemblance to her photos and she was probably very beautiful once.

The Story:

After this encounter I put in place a new rule: Always leave within five minutes if you are not sure it will be a nice meeting. She seemed very bored with her life and situation, lacking interest and excitement, and sexually she was nearly indifferent. I gave my best effort to put up a decent conversation, but she couldn't be bothered to contribute very much. The best I can say is that she was polite, and at the end of our meeting she told me something that she had just experienced that would have caused natural sorrow in most people. But at least in the short term, she shouldn't have been working. One of my bottom ten experiences.
