The Lady:

Extremely attractive, far moreso than I was expecting from the website photos.

Sophisticated in appearance. Beautifully attired and coiffeured as if going to a posh soiree - she would have fitted in well among the trophy wives and other consorts of the affluent classes.

British, reportedly 43 which seems entirely plausible, highlighted blonde hair, tall with her heels on, medium build, firm hourglass figure, large enhanced breasts, pubic hair shaved apart from a narrow strip.

The Story:

Punts really don't come any better than this! It was truly one of the very best in my comparatively successful punting career. And she certainly succeeded in satisfying me on every level which after all is what this game is all about.

She initiated the action almost immediately upon arriving (10 minutes early) after the barest minimum of small talk as if eager to start. It turned out to be a GFE of the highest order.

Everything she did was undertaken with enthusiasm and seemed so natural that I could have easily mistaken this for the blossoming of a new relationship between two people strongly attracted to each other rather than a business transaction between two strangers.

As the session progressed, she certainly conveyed the impression that her sole aim was to optimise my enjoyment. So confident was I that she won't turn me down that I asked her to suck my toes - not something that I have ever asked for before from any lady. She did so almost lovingly with the expression on her face suggesting that she was enjoying it as much as I.

Time flew and I suddenly became aware that we were starting to exceed my 60 minute allocation but there was no hint of hurry from her. I asked for matters to be brought to a natural conclusion by mouth and the finale was unsurprisingly of earthshattering proportions. She gently cleaned me up, again without rush, which I believe is a nice way of finalising proceedings.

As we said our goodbyes, I thanked her for making it so enjoyable by going the extra mile. She responded that she enjoyed it too adding that she wouldn't have done so for all the money in the world if she didn't.

It's always good to hear that financial reward isn't a lady's primary incentive for working though with Charlotte I had worked it out for myself.
