The Premises:

Third time visiting Annabellas it is a very clean and well run establishment

The Lady:

When Michelle first walked into the room I thought they had sent in the wrong girl as she looks very unlike her photos on the site, although I do believe it to be the same girl there has been a lot of work done to the pictures to enhance her real appearance. By no means is she unattractive but I was expecting much better.

The Story:

I decided to stay as I had traveled from afar and we got started with some kissing there was no tongue action from Michelle so I would not class it as french kissing. On to the bed and I went to give Michelle oral which she stopped me from doing and explained she did not offer this service as she does not like it (very strange) she also seemed to refrain when i was trying to caress her ass and breasts with my hands. On a more positive note she gave me some good owo positioned just right so i could see her in action through the mirror

I hope no offence is taken from this review but I have to be honest I have visited annabellas twice before and had no complaints what so ever hence the reason i felt a little let down after today
