The Premises:

Rosalie lives in a charming period property, down on the lower levels. This was my second visit and i managed to avoid the unnecessary wandering around that occurred on my last visit. It was my own fault for not reading her instructions carefully enough Building is easy to get into and the boudoir is very nice. She's added little twinkly lights since my last visit.

The Lady:

As pretty as I remembered. My predilection for porcelain skinned brunettes is well satisfied by a visit to Rosalie. She's got a wonderfully cheeky smile and a perpetual glint in her eye. The accent never fails to charm either

The Story:

I love Rosalie's sensualness, and how natural it feels to spend time with her. My main problem at the moment is how rarely I find myself at my leisure in london with a few hours to spend in her arms. I think she's particularly handy with her hands, but she's multitalented too. I dream of the day she decides to pack up and move further north, but I think that's a pipedream.

Two very good hours. I tore myself away
