The Story:

This was my first tantric experince. I went along thinking that this would be the usual nice massage with a happy ending but it was much more than that. Not to mislead fellow punters ,sex is not on offer at this establishment- but sexual healing is ! Under the guidance of Dhalia I suspended my scepticism and joined in some breathing exercises after which i was able relax into the most amazing sensual experience involving amazing touches, soothing stroking , hot oils and i think even feathers may have made an appearance....the ending was more of a happy eruption than a happy ending. i left feeling relaxed and invigorated in equal measure. Dhalia is just amazing and i will be back asap. This was the best £120 i have ever spent.
