The Story:

Not having visited any establishments for a couple of years everything fell into place to justify a visit on Friday. Took some time to decide on a suitable candidate, with some real crackers out there with great write ups it was a tough decision. Eventually opted for Adele & what a good decision it turned out to be. Lovely girl (sorry - woman!) really sexy, fantastic figure but what does it for me is someone with sparkle, sense of humour & obvious intelligence - Adele has these in buckets. Allied to that a cheeky and a little crude character & she just has the lot. No details, but all I can say is she knows her way round a man's genetalia!

Usual cliché, but I really don't want to recommend this lady too much - for she really is just for me! I feel Bella's has found a suitable replacement for the superstar that was Sally (now at Egos) - that is some accolade!
