The Premises:

Nice clean flat above a cafe. Discreet entrance, nice, safe area.
Bright clean bathroom with good shower.

The Lady:

Petite oriental girl (half Japanese, half Chinese), probably about 5'3" or 5'4", perfect body, slim but not too slim, lovely breasts (probably C cup) and bum. Pretty face. Note: as with most similar sites, she is not the same girl as in the photos on her website - but she is (IMHO) much prettier and sexier!

The Story:

I saw Kimmy last weekend at her new place in Bond Street. In fact, I have known Kimmy for 3 or 4 years and have seen her at Maida Vale and Wimbledon, where I first met her. So I know her pretty well by now. I have seen many, many oriental girls over the last few years (probably over 200), and very few, if any, come close to Kimmy. That's why I keep going back to her.

First, about the photos - no, they are not her: she is much, much prettier, so don't worry! Of course, it is all down to personal taste, but I do not find the website photos that attractive (personally, I wouldn't visit her on the basis of the website photos) - whereas Kimmy is really stunning! And a lovely person, funny (great sense of humour), friendly, kind... and very, very sexy. She really does a lot to make sure you are happy.

Kimmy is genuinely independent, which I like. All the money goes to her, not to an agency or madam. And unlike some similar, apparently "independent" sites for oriental girls, you won't find a different girl if you contact Kimmy for another visit in a few weeks time (yes, that has happened to me more than once, and it is not a good experience!). You will deal only with her, on the phone and in person. And her prices are very reasonable, even if they have gone up slightly with the move into Central London.

So... for a real GFE and/or sensual massage, I would totally recommend Kimmy.
