The Premises:

Chinese Medicine front to what is in reality a massage with HR and more shop. Reasonably discrete entrance, with two massage rooms and a shower. Girls change fairly often. Park in the Spires shopping center or side streets near high barnet tube (not between 2pm and 3pm). Pay and Display is via credit card, so you may want to avoid that!

The Lady:

The usual Chinese beauty. 28 years old, slim, long black hair and natural pubes. Good english. As the girls change fairly frequently, you may find someone else, but the same description and services will apply.

The Story:

Pay £30 for a 30 minute massage at the front desk, then another £30 to the girl for body-to-body massage. Good massage for ten mins or so, then things get sensual. Kiss and caress her, then swap places with her on the table. Responded well to reverse oral, then I asked for sex. A condom appears as if by magic and I get covered BJ followed by entering her soft tight pussy. She seems to really enjoy it! I came inside her and then got the usual clean-up service that oriental girls seem so keen on. Chatted for a while afterwards, then shower and leave very happy!
