The Premises:

Her place is right near to parking, quite a nice area seemed quiet enough and not too busy. Annabellas apartments are quite easy to find if you can find Next and John Lewis with restaurant on top. When i was going to my appointment the next door neighbour was looking out of his upstairs window for ages as i was looking to go across the road!!! The road is clearly sign posted and the numbers are clear on the properties. So i rang the bell and was let in and shown upstairs and i asked for a shower. It seems that there are no en suite showers?... Shower room and shower were adequate and functional with just enough shower gel!!! The room i was shown to was satisfactory and ok and again functional. I felt that not a lot of money has been spent on making it look nice or anything and i was expecting it to be better quality. Everything appeared to be clean enough and again satisfactory.

The Lady:

I am always dubious when looking at site photos of ladies, as i am not a big fan of over done and glamorous portraits. So i tend to make allowances for this and expect the potential lady to be not that nice!!! Well not as nice as their pics at any rate. I am really fussy about the ladies i see and take loads of time to investigate them before i take the plunge. So when i saw Aisha come into the room i was amazed by the great choice i had made in seeing her!!! In fact this is why i am writing this review/field report.

Aisha seemed about 5,5 with heels on, and had black hair and black stockings. I can't remember what else she was wearing as it's been a while now since i saw her. She said that she was 22 years of age and that she is half Turkish and Spanish. Wow Aisha has lovely olive skin and soft to the touch, lovely largish boobs and a figure that is mind blowing. Her photos are pretty close to how she looks in real life so you can go off them with some assurance.

The Story:

Well I had been having a run seeing independents thru the purple pulsator domain and had some fun and games, at the hands of an absolute nutter with which hit stoney ground and i was getting messed around so i decided to have a change of environment and try hitting the parlours again. This is how i came across this absolute gem of a working girl Aisha. I am not one for writing these reports because when i find a cracking wg then i don't want to tell you lot about her do i??? Ha ha.

I found Aisha to be warm, friendly, fun and having a great attitude to her work!!! She kept eye contact with me, came over as being sensual and caring. She did not shy away at all and was engaging and pleasant throughout our time together. I remember she beckoned me to her and put her arms around me which i thought was a great touch to start the proceedings!!! In fact i was so taken over by her finesse and wonder that i forgot to ask her what her extras were!!! That just shows me how fantastic the whole time together was.

This was the best punt i've had so far, and think that it won't be beaten for a long time to come (no pun intended). It felt like i was making love to my soul mate that's how good the punt was!!! So Aisha has restored my faith in punting and i am ready for action in the field yet again. So if you lot think i am being over sentimental and love sick in my description of what happened, then i am sorry to have misled you as this report is absolutely objective!!! We engaged in owo, kissing and mish, doggy, etc. I personally think that Aisha would do fantastic things, if she was an independent wg and would be very successful because of her brilliant attitude and amazing service that she provides. Also i think that girls like her are hard to find in this business and if i was you reading this i would get your ass to Annabellas and see her!!!

This review is not from a punter looking through rose tinted, fantasy land nonsense. This really did happen to me!!! And thank you Aisha for being the lovely person that you are!!! And i hope to see you again. Thank You Baby!!! Signing off the Puppet...
