The Premises:

My first time at the St Johns Wood branch. Located just off St Johns Wood High Street, it's situated in an area of mixed social housing (formerly known as council estates), expensive private dwellings (asking price for brand new duplex apartment round the corner is £5m) and some small businesses. I felt completely safe.

Several watering holes in vicinity. Free on street parking all day Saturdays.

Comprehensive directions texted through on acceptance of booking though the business name on signage by main entrance has no connection with HoD for discretion - this threw me.

I only saw the reception room and a bedroom but both were comfortable and well enough furnished.

The Lady:

Photos on HoD website provide a good indication of what to expect.

Very attractive blonde, mid-late 20s, slavic facial features, slim-medium build, average height, wonderfully shaped large breasts, full shaved.

The Story:

Pixie greeted me with a warm embrace which almost immediately transformed into dfk. "You're not shy are you" was her initial remark. This certainly broke the ice.

She removed my clothing and then stripped off her lingerie to kiss me all over as we quickly moved onto the main course of a very enthusiastically delivered gfe. I was quickly rock hard, the hardest I've been for a long while, as she pressed all the right buttons and said the right things. There was plenty of owo and then onto cowgirl so I could admire her gorgeous assets. Matters concluded with cim at my request and what a conclusion it was.

Pixie's definitely among the Premier League of providers - very engaging, speaks perfect English with a slavonic accent and great fun to be with. I really enjoyed her company and will strongly recommend to anyone looking for a quality gfe.
