The Premises:

Basement flat that was easy enough to find. It had one bedroom, one room for bdsm activities. Felt very safe and was near some hotels so might be tourists around. It was clean enough. On,y used the bathroom briefly but it looked fine

The Lady:

She was a blonde lady, very large breasts. Not skinny but not over weight either.

The Story:

I had phoned up at 1230 to enquire how much an hours service was - I spoke to a lady named Tanya as per the advert. Said what I wanted and she said it was all fine. I wanted a more dom experience than sensual. Agreed the time to see her of 3.30. Asked about price for an hours service and she couldn't give me a price, said it depended on activities. She then asked me how much I had in mind. I gave her a price and she said that was fine.

Travelled along to see her at the time and it took around 20 mins for me to even get in to the flat. I phoned when I got to a certain location as requested and awaited the address. Completely disorganised. - she forgot I had phoned earlier and then took a long time directing me to thr flat.

When I finally got in there was another wait of ten mins because she wasn't ready for me. When the lady finally arrived it was someone called Helen, not Tanya I had spoken to on the phine. Went with her to the bedroom to discuss services and when she mentioned payment I told her how much I had to spend which was the price I mentioned on the phone. She asked if I had any more and I said no. She then told me not all the services I wanted would be available but we could work around it.

Against my better judgement I went ahead and I barely got two of the services I had requested. 15 mins later it was all over. I wish had said something at the time but I didn't. £120 for 15 mins basically. Complete rip off.

Would not go back again for that.
