The Premises:

Pleasant neighbourhood, moderately exposed front door. Extremely pleasant interior. Friendly and efficient (and attractive) maid. Shower could still do with some maintenance.

The Lady:

Genuinely pretty woman, far better than the admittedly tempting photos. No tattoos, tiny mark from one removed piercing, lovely eyes, smooth skin.

The Story:

I'd had to cancel an appointment with Chelsea at the last moment a few days before when my wife chose to launch an unprovoked shopping trip to London at almost the same time. So I arranged this appointment instead, and I could not be happier to have had it. Pam's English is still improving (Pam? - what a name to give her, but never mind), but she was charming and so good to look at that I had to stop and just gaze at her from time to time, including while (ahem) fully engaged. She kissed warmly but with closed lips, but showed no reluctance in oral. I had to stop her so that I could enjoy her body more completely. She smiled and made encouraging noises (but I'm too old and cynical to believe them). Afterwards we lay and talked, much more smoothly than I would have expected. I have learned a few words of Romanian. I think - I may have misunderstood this bit - that she had worked in the same line when in Romania. She was genuinely friendly - as an example, because we had talked on, I had to get dressed and leave in a bit of a hurry, but she noticed that I'd tucked my shirt in badly, and she insisted on untucking and retucking it so that I left looking respectable. I also left drained and blissfully grateful. Mulțumesc mult!
