The Story:

I should have realised not to return to Chloe after the first experience where I had gone to her home in South Norwood and had been stood up without any explanation. I had rung her later, and she said she had had a problem with her child. However she could have answered my texts.

However, I gave her the benefit of the doubt and arranged another visit - this time in Croydon. When I arrived at the appointed time, she asked me if I could give her 10 minutes to get ready, (always a bad sign), and then asked for a further five. Eventually I met her by the lift and we went up to her room, only to find we couldn't get in. so downstairs to reception to get another key. I should have gone at this stage, but I dumbly thought things might improve.

Once we got into the room, we undressed, me completely, she down to bra and panties. She asked if I had had a wash after I had had a pee - I said I had and she ordered me to sit on the bed that she could suck me off. My dick had lost interest by this time, not helped by the fact that she told me she was suffering from a hangover. If I suggested doing something, Chloe said she wouldn't and in the end I gave up when she got abusive.

Afterwards I thought that maybe I should have done what she wanted and it might have gone OK.

She's a pretty girl, but she is rude and unreliable. See some of the comments on the other site. She should get another job.
