The Premises:

I've seen Harley twice at her place. Clean enough inside although the bedroom was a bit cramped. Area is pretty awful. Harley doesn't mind you parking right outside her house, but to be honest, it's not the sort of area you would want to leave your car unattended. I also had the feeling that there was someone in the next room just waiting to burst in. So why did I go back a second time? Well this was my first punt and I didn't really know what to expect, so the second time I thought I might be a bit more relaxed about the whole thing. I wasn't, which is why I then booked Harley for an outcall - read on!

The Lady:

To be fair, Harley looks fantastic and has a sexy Australian accent that is rather cute. Her photos are probably 5 years or so out of date but she hasn't changed that much and is non the worse for looking a little older. She has a bubbly personality and is very talkative. She advertises OWO which consists of holding your cock somewhere close to her face - I think I must have been misunderstanding what OWO meant for all of those years. She also isn't particularly responsive once she is lying down, if you know what I mean.

The Story:

Despite the above I arranged for an outcall (I didn't know how other WG's behaved so had nothing to compare her too). I'm in the Midlands at a hotel for a couple of days a month, so it made sense to arrange to meet there. She didn't show up. I text her a couple of times, got no reply, so left it at that. She text the next day to say she had been in a car accident and had been taken to hospital, so obviously couldn't make it. I felt sorry for her, text her to ask how she was and made another appointment for the following month (I know, I'm stupid). One month later and she didn't show up again. Ignored all of my texts but emailed me a couple of days later to say she had been in hospital due to a "bad client". Another month went by and today she was supposed to meet me again, although I wasn't really expecting her to arrive. Got a text 15 minutes after she was due to arrive saying she was stuck in traffic. Promising, I thought. No further communication for 5 hours, even though I text her a couple of times to ask if she was ok. Then a text : guess what : she's been in a car accident and taken to hospital !

Looking at her feedback on A/W she has had yet another car accident recently. Insurance must be through the roof !

If she doesn't do outcalls why on earth does she advertise that she does ?

Why did I book her a third time ? Well, even I'm not that stupid - as a fail-safe I booked to meet someone else at lunchtime and have just spent an amazing 60 minutes with someone who has made me realize quite how poor Xx Harley xX actually is at her job.

In summary, looks great, completely undependable and not very imaginative. Avoid.
