The Premises:

Although it's only a short five minutes walk from Paddington station the basement apartment is located in a very quite and safe neighbourhood. The apartment itself is spacious, clean with a large comfy bed. There is an excellent power shower.

The Lady:

The photos on Valentina's website do not do herself justice. She is a very petite lady, with large enhanced boobs and a very welcoming personality.

The Story:

After reading reviews on this site for some time I decided that I should stop being lazy and write a review because this was I think about the tenth time I have visited Valentina and if anyone deserved a review it is her. I rarely if at all visit a lady more than two times but Valentina is the exception to the rule. She not only gives the usual pampered Thai girl experience but has an extra edge to her service that cannot be put into words.

I was greeted at the door with a big sloppy kiss with Valentina in a sexy nurses outfit as requested. After being given a drink it was off to the bathroom for a quick assisted shower, I decided this time to refrain from the usual bath experience as the nurse outfit was making me ultra horny with her big boobs bursting out of her uniform.

Originally I had booked an hour and a half but not for the first time with Valentina I extended the booking. This is something I have never done with any other girl but Valentina is so absorbing and addictive I always want more. She provides a great mixture of GFE and PSE service with all the trimmings, oral, rimming and her special massage are just a few of the things she excels at. I can never resist Valentina's pussy, it is completely shaven, tastes heavenly and she most certainly had several orgasms during our booking. Oh and she has an arse to die for and certainly enjoys A Levels.

She changed from her nurses outfit to schoolgirl then later to French Maid then to another school uniform.

Currently there are some ok Thai WG's in London and also some very good ones I've had the privilege to see but Valentina is for me easily in the top three and unfortunately the other two have since left the UK.

I can't rate her high enough hence bothering to write up my first report.
Treat her well and you will be well rewarded.
