The Premises:

Very open corporation estate, apparently full of "curtain twitchers". Felt very exposed at the door. Was asked to knock lightly so the neighbours could not hear. Interior is nicely kept, clean and good taste.

The Lady:

Even taking the heels into account she seems taller than the 5ft 4in as quoted in text of profile. Skinny bordering on anorexic with gaunt face, but breasts fill bra out very well. Hair thinning and dyed with split ends. Would put her older than the 40yrs quoted. Photos on profile are better than reality.

The Story:

Initial contact was by phone and to be honest she sounded a bit dazed. But after a little bit of confusion we eventually arranged the time. I 'phoned at the prescribed time and place but no answer. I waited a few more minutes and 'phoned again this time I had a reply and was asked to 'phone again in 10 minutes. I waited and 'phoned again this time I was given directions to her house.

Charlene was wearing a pink pvc nurse outfit, stockings and high heels. I was greeted with the words "Where did you park?". She didn't like the answer so I offered to move it. She said it'd be OK. We settled the finances and she returned to the subject of where I parked, paranoid the neighbours would see me. We went upstairs but told to be quiet as the neighbours could hear. While I removed my socks and trousers she ran around the house checking if the anyone could see or hear us. Then her paranoia about the car kicked in again. I again offered to move the car but she refused then she was devising plans as to how I could leave unobserved. To be honest at this point I'd lost the urge so I asked for my money back (not expecting the full amount but at least a contribution). She refused, saying it'd had gone to a place where it don't come back (dealer?). She did offer a free session... hmmm I've been there before .... you 'phone up to arrange the "free" session only to be told that she didn't agree to that.

Another one chalked up to experience.

She has some good reviews on the other site but I'd avoid like the plague.
