The Story:

Cara and I have been talking to each other for quite a while now (over a year!) so I was delighted that I finally got to meet her. She was everything that I expected and more.

I collected her from the train station and brought her to my place. She was so chatty (which is a good thing!) as there were no awkward moments at all. Wow, I don't even think I've talked that much either. Like ever. I felt relaxed from the first instance I saw her. She is definitely one of the prettiest escorts I have ever seen in my life, if not, the prettiest. I was blown away. I wouldn't call her an escort because I don't know... it actually felt like meeting a friend, haha.

We basically chatted for like... I don't know how long, but it was a long time. Interesting conversations! It wasn't a bad thing; I didn't mind at all, I love how we just got on and great banter! Never laughed so much in an escort meeting before.

Then to the fun stuff. She was one of the best kissers I've ever come across that I could actually kiss her all day. Also, she wasn't lying about her oral skills. They are damn good!

I might have also made her a bit wet too. ;-) That's actually an understatement, she was very wet. Very very wet. It was like I was drenched by rain. Can someone please help because I think my bedroom's flooded?

As a reward for coming over, she gets to fuck me and she got her wish (I'm joking, it was a privilege!). Awkward when I struggled to put on a condom. #needmoreexperience #iamanidiot #whyamihastagging #itscoolman

One of the best meetings ever. Probably the best. It was definitely worth the wait and hopefully I'll get to see her again. ?

Gosh, I hope I wasn't bad!
