The Premises:

As described in my previous visit. The buzzer was working this time.

The Lady:

I couldn't tell if it was her cos her face was blurred so I had to see for myself if the tits for hire were really the ones in the pictures.

The Story:

Gemma entered the room in her bra & panties and spectacles. I was struck by how slim she was. she noticed that I had opened the window cos it was bloody hot in that room with the radiator on full blast. She closed it again saying something about having trouble with her kidneys. I thought to myself getting fucked all day can't do her kidneys much good. I asked Gemma to humour me by removing her bra and putting my jumper on which she agreed to. I explained this was necessary cos I am a tit inspector and when girls have blurred website photos it is my job to verify that the breasts on display are the ones in the photos. I began with a blind feel test. I instructed Gemma to line up against the wall while I put my hand up the jumper to have a feel. I pressed my cock against her bum till I got a stiffy, which was straight away so I kept it for a little while longer. Gemma turned to face me and teased me through my clothing and stroked my cock which was still in my trousers. I had a good old fondle of her breasts as we kissed, before removing her top so I could visually inspect the goods. It's not that they are big, it's just that they are in good proportion to the rest of her slender body and wonderful to touch. I then undressed as Gemma slipped off her panties and beckoned me onto the bed before administering some OWO and touching my body with her breasts. Gemma allowed me to lick her out before putting the condom on me. I inserted my cock and was engaged in some long, slow fucking when suddenly there was a knock at the door. I finished by banging her furiously in mish. At the this point I should report that Gemma has dreamy blue eyes and there was lots of eye contact and passionate kissing on the lips, although she doesn't do FK. Funny that, she will put my cock in her mouth but not my tongue. The knock on the door meant that I was unable to conclude my enquiries therefore I will need a return visit to inspect her tits again, and perhaps stay for longer next time. This was the first time in ages that 30 minutes hasn't been enough for me.
