The Premises:

Somewhere in earl's court, a few minutes from the tube station. I've never seen such a small "all in one" bathroom... But you can fit in it...

The Lady:

look even better in real, toned a slim body, great hair color indeed !

The Story:

Well as soon as the intimate part started I saw that something was wrong.... I wondered if it was because she was more submissive than dominant but no in fact it just couldn't work... I'm not trying to guess but I'm a regular average looking guy and I said nothing offensive or acted badly so maybe she must have got a bad vibe from me... Anyway, I booked 2h but after a very awkward silent moment I asked for the time and the first hour was about to finish so I inquired if you could stop here and she eagerly accepted... She gave me back 100£ back arguing that the 30mn "penalty" was to compensate the impossibility to have been booked by someone else. I didn't discuss that point. I called the agency, not to complain but just to tell them that I've had already left and that she gave me 100£ back. I can very well understand that not every can connect but she should have said something from the start... We would not have felt miserable both for one hour...
