The Premises:

Business hotel with usual facilities. No problem getting in without any questions.

The Lady:

Unfortunately Sam was quite different to the pictures shown on her website. She has put on a huge amount of weight since these were taken. I would guess she is now about 5 or 6 stone heavier, most of it around her waist and on her breasts. She was also wearing heavy fake tan which didn't quite reach into all the folds in her ample girth.

One unfortunate side effect of Sams weight was that she was limited in the positions she could adopt, and we seemed to be limited to doggy, which I don't like, and mish.

The Story:

Sam has a lovely personality and gave me a warm welcome, offering me a hot drink before we got down to business.

Sam soon had her top and skirt off revealing a black bra and red g string matched to her black stockings and suspenders. We started to kiss and cuddle and Sam was keen to get her ample breasts out of her bra, but was less keen to have her nipples kissed and sucked. She undressed me and we started more cuddling and kissing. I removed her bra completely so I could enjoy some skin to skin contact as we kissed and caressed. Her breasts were surprisingly firm, so perhaps they had some silicone assistance but they did seem sensitive enough.

All this was starting to get me nice and stiff, and as soon as she had my briefs off Sam set about my now erect cock with her hands and her tongue. She took me in her mouth and sucked away, no condom required! Such was my excitement that every so often I had to hold her back, because I wanted to come inside her! I removed the G string, although in truth it didn't really restrict access to her gorgeous clit or inside her cunt. I caressed her clit gently, and although Sam was quite happy to allow me access to all areas she was obviously aware that they had already seen some action and were likely to see more later in the day. She was therefore concerned about getting sore down there.

By now my cock really wanted to feel Sam inside, so on went the rubber covering. It was then that I found out about Sams limitations and we had to negotiate which positions we would use. So we ended up in a variety of mish. I am as keen as the girls to use a condom to protect us both, but you don't get that glorious feeling as you slip inside her for the first time. That smooth sensation of your head rubbing up against the rim of her cunt and the down your whole length as you enter is one of the best feelings when making love. However Sam was nice and tight so I enjoyed the sensation of thrusting in and out of her and it wasn't long before I could feel that glorious feeling of an impending climax before coming inside the condom inside Sam!

After we cleaned up Sam made it clear that as we had plenty of time left I was more than welcome to spend it relaxing with her, and if I was up for it round two was on the cards. Sam happily made conversation as we relaxed together and she idly played with my cock. After a bit I started to enjoy the sensation and responded with some stiffening. Sam made valiant efforts with her mouth and hands to get me fully stiff again, but to no avail. To be honest after the initial excitement of the prospect of a imminent fuck was over, the sight of Sams ample obesity was a bit of a turn off. A shame as Sam was certainly up for having me inside her again, even getting a second condom out just in case....

We chatted a bit more as I cleaned up. It was all very relaxed and I was well over time when I left. Sam was doing an offer of an hour for £80, her normal fee being £120. Maybe she is finding repeat custom difficult to come by due to being overweight? I don't think I'll be back, but if she were trim and able to adopt all the popular position I'd be happy to go back and to pay the full fee.
