The Premises:

The apartment is very conveniently situated a few minutes' walk from Queensway station.

The room is large, nicely decorated and warm.

Shower facilities are excellent with a range of soaps, gels and body lotions and the shower actually works properly!

The Lady:

Julia is a stunning girl - quite tall (the 5'7" description is accurate) – her photos are a true representation but she's more gorgeous in real life.

I'd say probably the best looking escort in London, and that isn't an exaggeration as I have seen quite a number of them.

Very welcoming and with a lovely smile, she puts you at ease as soon as you arrive.

Her English is excellent and she's intelligent with a very good sense of humour.

I have visited her many times and she is always immaculately groomed and sexily dressed and has a range of outfits – my personal favourite being lingerie with stockings and suspenders.

Underneath the clothes, the best body I have seen: slim waist, shapely hips, flat stomach, great legs, firm peachy bum and the most amazing big natural boobs.

If someone were to design the perfect body for sex, Julia's would surely be the one.

The Story:

When it comes to the action, she is totally attentive to your needs.

After an awesome oral session - she is very skilled in that department - we had sex in multiple positions – if there had been a chandelier in the room, we'd have probably done it while hanging off that. Julia is a very responsive receiver as well as an enthusiastic giver.

At the end, I was left completely exhausted, drained and with an inanely satisfied smile on my face. All her services were delivered with a real involvement and passion that one doesn't get with many escorts. She seems to really enjoy what she does and her only concern is just to give you as much pleasure as possible.

I have been seeing Julia for a long time – under her previous name of Caprice - and she is indeed the complete GFE and I have no hesitation in highly recommending her, although it pains me to do so because I would like this sweet angel all to myself.
