The Premises:

The Lady:

Even more beautiful and sexy in person. She's about 5'5 or 5'6, then with her heels she's much taller. She has long sexy legs, nice perky chest, I'd say a C cup. Very firm and pretty. Her hair was styled and her make-up was light but very sexy.

The Story:

I was in South Kensington feeling a bit naughty and I rang Angels for a visit. They sent Maxim over and I was delighted when she showed up. She slipped out of her long trench coat and had nothing on but sexy black lingerie! How naughty! She asked me what she could do and got to work. I love watching girls model and be very slow and sensuous about it. She was moving like fluid. She didn't rush the time at all. We had pleasant then naughty conversation. She really bossed me around and I loved it. Her lacy get up was driving me wild. Then I touched her skin. It was so soft and smooth. It drove me wild. She caressed every part of me and was slow and punishing about her seduction. Her hands teased every inch of me slowly. I was going so wild that I spilled soon after being taken inside.

So she giggled and cleaned me up. Then we chatted again for a few minutes and my soldier slowly came back to attention. This time she teased me lovingly with her tongue. I forgot myself completely. She fiercely began working me and talking wild. I could scarcely keep my back on the bed as she continued forcing that sweet sensation out of me.

She was very sweet about it all when it was over and I thanked her. She slipped out the door silently. There went my dream.

Maxim was a very pleasant experience and I can't wait to do it again.
