The Premises:

The place near Victoria station. I had the first bedroom immediately to the left after coming through the front door. There was nowhere to drape my clothing so it ended up in an undignified heap next to the bed.

The Lady:

Blonde EE, attractive in a girl next door sort of way, slim-medium build, average height, medium-large breasts, fully shaven. Website details just about right although I wouldn't have thought she was much more than mid 20s. Photos almost certainly are of her.

The Story:

Angelica's a truly lovely person. I felt very comfortable with her so in many ways this was a GFE on a deeper level. She greeted me warmly as if pleased to see me and this immediately led to a long bout of dfk followed by ro with fingers inserted then back to owo. It was then back to more dfk with fingers inserted then intercourse in cowgirl then doggie then back to owo. In between, she licked my nipples and the undercarriage without any prompting which fired me up even further. The session ended with a hand finish accompanied by even more dfk.

She clearly didn't like her feet handled (let alone kissed) and told me she didn't do cim but I was enjoying myself so much that these rules didn't impact adversely on our time together.

She said that she's never busy when she works at Victoria and thought that it's jinxed. Ironically, she's been on my list to see for some time but Warren Street isn't that easy for me to get to so I was pleased to find her working in SW1V on a day that I was in the centre of town with a gap in my schedule.
