The Premises:

Rosalie has a lovely apartment in a quiet part of central London. I have been here before and it is a discreet place where I feel at ease and sheltered from all my cares in the world.

The Lady:

Rosalie is very beautiful. I have met her a few times now and have nothing but praise for her. Rosalie's pictures are so lovely, but they just don't seem to do her justice and can never convey just how chic she really is. This lady is effortlessly demure.

The Story:

I enjoyed an interesting and though provoking conversation with Rosalie. We relaxed and chatted over some wine that I had brought for her. Rosalie stimulates the mind as well as the body, and I really mustn't go into too much detail as I think it's unnecessary. All you need to know is that this lady is everything you would hope her to be and more! Alone she is wondrous, and I've been told that she has many lovely friends should I ever feel compelled to partake in a little ménage à trois! At my age I'm not sure if I could take such excitement. However, I departed from our date feeling like a young man again so I will see her again, along with her friend perhaps when I return to the UK.
