The Premises:

Brooklyn's hasn't changed much at all - rooms very clean and shaded, usually 3 rooms and thus three girls and welcoming is usually warm. The only thing that has changed is the waiting room has a coffee machine for a self-serve coffee trip. The best place to park is at the back (there's a car park there) or possibly at Sainsbury's but you have to chance a security patrol.

The Lady:

Jazz is a mixed race Indian lass, the photos on Brooklyns are accurate but I would say she's prettier in person, late twenties but overall very sexy smile and attitude. One thing that I found, from a previous review, yes - she can talk for Britain but I loved it because she likes talking about what she would like to do to you and very open and keen to what pleases you. A very hot combination as I found out.

The Story:

Basically: hot! She walked in, a very suprising kiss on the lips and, with a sultry foreign accent, stroked my crotch, talking what she would like to do to me and what it would do to her. (It's quite a tour de force because Jazz likes to get you involved and I am sure her squeal when she felt I was getting hard is the enjoyment she got from turning me on). She stripped me down and began to stroke the hardening curve and then on the rubber for a very deep suck. I can't seem to remember too much after but I do remember a really intense session because I was out of breath and came intensely after. If you like your girl a little lively and wild, Jazz is it and, if you like a talkative girl, she's that too! Very nice chat afterwards and offered me a hot drink too - maybe I needed a coffee - but overall, definitely, worth visiting.
