The Premises:

As previously described.

The Lady:

Girl next door in appearance, average height, large breasts which won't pass the pencil test(which is what I like) with large areolae and nipples (which I also like), a few extra inches round the waist evidencing pregnancy at the some time in the past, Brazilian style between the legs, reportedly Dutch but with no hint of a Dutch accent - in fact has the same type of accent as a few other ladies at Annabellas (though she might of course hold a Dutch passport and/or citizenship). I'm pretty sure it's her in the photos but she wasn't quite what I envisaged though I found her attractive enough especially her breasts.

The Story:

I was attracted to Megan by her photos. The FRs linked to her profile are all in the name of Jodi so I suspect that she rebranded herself somewhere along the line. I didn't attach any significance to this though.

When she opened the door to let me into the apartment, I sensed from her body language that I might be in for a disappointment. This was confirmed when we got into bed when I tried to kiss her and she turned her head away. Now I'm the sort of punter who prepares fastidiously for a punt and this includes ensuring that I am well hydrated, use mouthwash beforehand and have a mouth full of strong mints (and I also see a dental hygienist every 3 months) so poor oral hygiene is unlikely to be the factor. I recognise that all services are at the lady's discretion and it could well be that she found me physically repulsive but the jury's still out on this - most other ladies manage to hide this exceedingly well and some even manage to pretend otherwise.

For me FK is a key element of the punt so I pointed out that it is a service stated on her profile. She responded by saying superciliously "oh really?" From that point though she opened her mouth and allowed gentle flicks of the tips of the tongue so I suppose that this complies with advertising standards but it was apparent that she wasn't liking it and and consequently neither was I.

Moreover, Megan didn't do cim but this was not listed as a service she provides and she didn't allow fingers inside which is fair enough so neither of these were issues. There was one other downside and that when she was finishing me by hand she stopped just before the first spurt. I'd asked her to continue but she didn't so I had to do it myself. It was, as it turned out, extremely powerful but this was more to do with the fact that I was still fired up from an absolutely superb session a few days previously rather than anything she did. I had no complaints though with the way she delivered her other services - owo was above average in technique, she proactively licked my nipples and repeated this many times when she learnt that I like this, intercourse was enthusiastically delivered and she was very personable.

I deliberated hard whether to recommend but in the end concluded that it would be harsh not to as it wasn't a bad session overall. It's a bit like going to a Michelin starred restaurant and being served the same quality food as one gets in one of the national chain of pubs - still enjoyable to eat but disappointing on a deeper level. I will however attach a caveat for those for whom passionate kissing is a pre-requisite and point out that this might be a gamble with Megan and that from my experience there are many other ladies at Annabellas who will be far more suitable.
