The Story:

This review is really prompted by some agencies appearing to continually mislead punters. Typically, I only book A level girls. The Pasha agency website clearly stated that Caprice offers A level, and it's "included". I then specifically asked the receptionist, Natalie, to check with Caprice that A level is available....well, you can guess the rest. Half way through the hour Caprice explains that she can't do A level due to having been well-used earlier in the day. Moreover, even if she could, it's an extra 50 quid. That's as fine as it goes. But why can't agencies just be honest? Caprice wasn't bad, despite being a little nervy and uncertain, and I couldn't honestly say how much of the misunderstanding - or manipulation of the truth - is down to her and how much to the agency. But I won't be using Pasha again.
