The Premises:

Personally i dont recommend the Head Office Parlour, it seemed very cramped and didnt have the most welcoming of environments. The lady in charge on the day of my visit was pleasant enough but when i was introduced to the three girls that were working that day it was pretty much downhill from there. the first two girls i met didnt look happy to be there, one did manage a smile when we met but it was plainly obvious that it was forced. I really felt a bit uncomfortable and guilty being there.

The Lady:

Toyha was a nice enough girl to meet, she was the only one of the three girls i met on the day who actually seemed happy. She had beautiful dark skin that i just adore and a fairly nice figure.

The Story:

I'll admit i was a bit nervous but it wasnt helped by the fact that the whole episode felt like a business transaction rather than a pleasurable erotic experience. I tried to kiss her only for her to back off and say it would cost an extra tenner for kissing, next i tried to give her oral but no i couldnt do that either without paying more. At this point nothing much was happening so she asked if i wanted a massage, i accepted and that used up the remaining ten minutes of time. I showered, paid my money and was quickly ushered out the back door. Still though you learn from your mistakes and i will definitely never go to this place again. Wherever else you go, it'll be much better than Head Office
