The Premises:

Sakura works from a purpose built flat on quite a busy road, but does have on site parking. The entrance is by entry phone and is discreet.

The Lady:

Sakura is a classic petite oriental, she says she is Japanese, with cute boobs and bum. She is unshaven, which is not my preference, but the change was quite intriguing.

The Story:

I made the booking by phone, arrived at the appointed time and was ushered in by a middle aged oriental lady. Sakura was waiting in the bedroom and I was pleased with her appearance, she slipped her top off immediately her boobs were lovely. I had hoped to spend an hour , but was informed that she had another appointment so only 1/2 an hour was possible. I asked for the bathroom to have a freshen up and when I returned she was completely naked, complete with hairy bush! I love the care that you sometimes get from orientals, she insisted on undressing me and folding up my clothes and indeed afterwards did the opposite dressing me. Sakura spoke good English and i asked her if she was working next week, but she said she was doing the maiding and another girl would be working, I suspect she will also be called Sakura. But I had a lovely time with her doing all the usual things, she was very caring tender and passionate, what more can you want? Frustratingly after I had cum I was informed that I could now have the full hour, but it was too late.
