The Lady:

Amy is a very, very attractive lady, The photographs on her website (and elsewhere) are accurate, and sexy, but don't quite convey quite how pretty and warm she is in person.

Amy was dressed simply, in a halter top, blue jeans and sneakers (there are photos of this outfit on her website). Discrete, but very sexy.

She has amazing hair that reaches down to her bottom, a lovely smile, and a really attractive body with cute freckles - she clearly works out.

The Story:

This was my first time doing this. I made initial contact with Amy through the form on her website three days before. Amy got back straight away; we exchanged several emails over the next couple of days, and booked for an hour at 9pm at the hotel I was staying in. Reading the emails back now, the process was very thorough and businesslike, but rather arousing in itself. On the night, leading up to 9pm, I was increasingly nervous - I think I had three showers. A final email exchange at about 7 to confirm room numbers, then she phoned on the hotel phone an hour before as a final check.

And then she arrived, with a discrete knock on the door, right on time. I guess I'd like to keep much of what then happened private, but I will say that I was relaxed almost straight away, that she's a great kisser, funny, confident (in a quiet way) and very sexy and very skillful. The hour flew by, and then, with a last kiss and a hug, she was gone. I had a great time. I hope Amy did, too.
