The Premises:

Very nice modern and spacious flat within a few minutes walk of Paddington Station.

The Lady:

As photographed and definitely a stunner. Tits are enhanced but not to the extent they are in your face. Well they were in my face but you know what I mean. Hair was black rather than the redder colour in the photographs. A few years older than the Rosebud website indicates but that's fine for me as I generally prefer girls who have some experience of life.

The Story:

This was a 90 minute/2 pop visit. Started with a get-to-know-you chat and then she got to work with those lips. Graduated to cowgirl then reverse cowgirl and that concluded round 1. Time for some small-talk and then round 2 which included 69, doggy and then one of the best BJ's - you know when the girl stares into your eyes - it was one of those.

I wanted to try missionary but we never got to that. I guess that just means I need to visit again. So, this was up there with the best and I would be very happy to return when I next have a spare couple of hours.

The Rosebud listing talks about A levels but she no longer offers these. Also FIV is a no go area. Neither of these affected my enjoyment so I mention only for completion.
