The Premises:

Familiar building to many, a fairly short walk from South Ken tube. Flat is around the back of the building so quite a trek through the corridors from the main entrance. Perfectly clean and functional room in a flat shared with another girl.

The Lady:

Exactly like the photos on the site. Average height, absolutely perfect slim figure, and very tanned, virtually perfect skin. Certainly has a model look about her, and with beautiful eyes which is always a big hit for me.

The Story:

Daria was one I had been intending to visit for a while now but hadn't for various reasons. Wished I had done so earlier though as everything about this visit was good. She is a very confident but easy going Romanian girl who is polite and friendly, yet with an assertive side which I really like.

I was a bit nervous about this booking as I had injured myself playing football a few days before and wasn't sure how well I would be able to perform, but she was gentle and knew exactly what to do. But I think she would be just as good (if not better) at a more lively and demanding session which is why I fully intend to return when I'm back to full fitness!

I read another review that she had a bit of an attitude, but my experience was the opposite. I get the impression she is very much one that will treat you well if you do the same to her, so for anyone looking for a great time with a drop-dead gorgeous girl, you couldn't do much better than Daria.
