The Premises:

A very well known hotel near High Street Kensington tube station... The room was clean and functional with good large bed.

The Lady:

Tall slim brunette with a toned body... very much what the pictures on the agency website is showing...

The Story:

I'll have a 'Neutral' recommendation for Millie despite her great looks and kindness...

we did not clicked for sure but the whole meeting felt mechanical and with no real connection of any kind... as I wrote, she's really cute and had great overall attitude but everything was done just mechanically.

After arriving at half the booking time I did a understand that she wasn't in any mood to go further so we just spoke for the rest of our encounter... quite surprised/disappointed but she made no moves towards having a second round..

She's open so the conversation was easy and interesting but her lack of experience and shyness did make the meeting fell short taking into account my expectations...
