The Premises:

Very easy to find, very discrete parking in a shopping center car park and discrete entrance to the apartment.

The Lady:

Stunning young lady. Every bit, if not more stunning than her pictures.

The Story:

I suffer from anxiety, which makes me rubbish in the sack, often finishing far too soon, sometimes even before I start. I went to see Michaela to see if I could begin to gain some confidence. There was something about her beautiful face in the pictures that I thought I could trust.

I was greeted by Michaela, who was wearing not very much and looked absolutely stunning. I explained my situation, and that I was looking for something very gentle and that I was incredibly nervous. Michaela immediately put me at ease and offered a massage, which did the trick in relaxing me a little bit.

We changed to laying next to each other and some engaged in some light kissing which was heaven. I felt very reassured at this point and could have paid £90 just for that to be honest. After a while we slowly moved in to some gentle sex and to my great surprise, I was able to keep going much more than on any previous attempts. And those attempts were many years ago.

I'm very grateful to Michaela for taking care of me and helping me gain a little bit more confidence. She was beautiful, reassuring, confident, funny, caring and gentle to me. I'll almost certainly be back.

I think I've fallen a little bit in love with her.
