The Premises:

The premises are very discreet, just off the main road running through Flint. To enter the premises you ring a bell and the door is automatically opened. Once inside you climb a set of stairs to where you are greeted by a very friendly "maid" and offered a drink. The premises are clean and bright and the room was spacious, nicely furnished and very pleasant. Nice clean bathroom and shower available if required. All in all it was a very pleasant surprise. The fee was £50 for a half hour with an extra £10 for owo. It is certainly worth the extra £10.

The Lady:

When Caprice entered the room I was absoluteley delighted. I have been used to using independent escorts where you see photographs of them before making your booking, so I was, to say the least, apprehensive as to what the lady would look like. She was absolutely stunning. Petite, very attractive, blonde and with a body to die for. Far better than any independent escort I have seen. Beautiful face, gorgeous legs, and an incredible pair of boobs with real stand out nipples. Couldn't have asked for anything better. She is also very friendly, with a great sense of humour and very easy to hold a conversation with. No awkward silences.

The Story:

When Caprice entered the room I undressed and we made our way onto the bed. She removed her bra to reveal those magnificent boobs and then asked if I wanted her panties on or off at that stage. I said off and she enthusiastically obliged. I was offered a massage, which I declined and we then had a kiss and a cuddle before Caprice suggested a 69er. This went on for some time with Caprice making some really encouraging noises as well as paying me compliments about my oral skills. These moans and groans were definiteley genuine. I have been doing this for long enough to know the real thing. Fron this position we moved to me giving Caprice oral and fingering her. Again she said she loved it. Then on went the condom and Caprice mounted me cowgirl. The sight of those boobs bouncing away in front of me as Caprice worked away will stay with me for a very long time. We then changed to doggy which was great, especially watching us in the large mirror behind the bed. To finish off Caprice gave me more oral and hand relief. We were both quite sweaty at the end and my legs were very shakey when I got off the bed. This really was one of the best sessions I have had in a long time and I will certainly be returning to Temptations and definately be seeing the gorgeous lovely Caprice again.
