The Story:

I had visited last month for a short session to see whether we would get on. That went well so I returned for a longer visit. Miss Linda goes for the sensual style of domination and is open to switching. It is very easy to have an open conversation about the session. We started with me calling the shots and making an intimate inspection of her feminine bits and then giving a sensual massage with tongue work. Then I handed myself over to be dominated as Miss Linda wished. This include teasing and a reasonably painful time over the whipping bench followed by being secured on the bed for Mistress to have her wicked way. A great way to spend the time. I can still see her Cheshire Cat smile.
