The Premises:

This was my second visit to this flat which was about a 6 minute walk from Whitechapel tube station. It was modern and there were shower facilities.

The Lady:

A friendly and curvy Hungarian girl with full D cup breasts.

The Story:

I commenced the session with a shower and then on my return to the room the massage/relief service commenced. The only downside was the bed which had a few loose springs! The massage was light and not overly sensual. I was relaxed though and when the turnover moment arrived I was suitably aroused. The relief was very enjoyable and following that I left the room, showered again and made my way home. I think the previous girl I saw was Jasmine, who is now at Woolwich, back in January. There seems to be a few Hungarian girls offering a massage/relief service in this area.
